WEBINAR SERIES ON HOUSING

Non-Traditional Approaches to Housing: A Practitioner's View

This webinar continues to explore innovative and person-centered approaches to housing. According to Dr. Michael Kendrick, it is possible to develop non-traditional housing solutions that support an individual's lifestyle, priorities and specific needs, rather than trying to make a "fixed" or standardized support model work for the individual. He'll discuss:

- Self and family-governed support models
- Role of family service and housing cooperatives
- Addressing a person's vulnerabilities and possible safeguards
- And other considerations for parents
