WEBINAR SERIES ON HOUSING

Person-Centered Living Arrangements: Conversation with L'Arche Boston North

L'Arche Boston North's mission is "to create homes where the gifts of people with developmental disabilities are revealed through mutually transforming relationships." L'Arche Boston North communities embody inclusion and are places where people with and without intellectual disabilities live and work together as peers. In this webinar with the Executive Director of L'Arche Boston North, Jennifer Matthews, we will discuss:

- L'Arche's model of interdependence between core members and assistants
- How they utilize community resources to enhance support
- Recommendations for parents on what to consider when developing living arrangements for loved ones and working with agencies
